Marriage and Funeral Records
from the
Sherman and Bowen Family Papers
Vermont Historical Society
MSA 850

The following items have been transcribed or abstracted from a collection of records donated to the Vermont Historical Society in 2018 by Ellen Burd of Wichita, Kansas. Included are records of marriages and funerals officiated by Rev. N.D. Sherman.

Nathan Drury Sherman was born 19 June 1818 in Savoy, Mass., the son of Jacob Sherman and Abigail Read. Nathan moved to Whitingham, Vt., where he married Celina Parsons on 7 February 1840. Celina, daughter of John Parsons and Sarah Ballou, had been born 5 May 1815 at Readsboro, Vt. The couple raised a large family in Whitingham, and Celina died there on 11 December 1889. Nathan remarried on 11 February 1891 to Annie E. Bassett. This was Annie's third marriage. She had been born ca. 1841, the daughter of Henry and Maria Ann Weaver, and twice been previously married, most recently to Sharon Bassett. Nathan Sherman died on 19 August 1914 at Whitingham.

Records are copied by folder, each of which contains various items of interest. Uncertain interpretations are contained in square brackets. An all-name index follows.

Item 1: Funeral Remembrance Card: Mrs. N.D. Sherman, died December 10, 1889. (Note: This is Nathan's first wife, Celina, and the date of death varies from the State vital records, which states she died on 11 Dec 1889.)

Item 2: Book containing marriages performed by Nathan Sherman. (This appears to be a later recapitulation of records in an earlier manuscript – to follow as Item 3 – but has a few more entries than that apparently earlier version.)
